

Getting Here

By Rail

The University is served by its own train station – called University. Most cross-country services to Birmingham arrive at New Street Station. Up to six trains an hour then depart for the University station on the cross-city line (ten minutes to University station, with the final destination Longbridge or Redditch).

By Bus

Numbers X61 and 63 travel to the University's Edgbaston campus, while the X64, 76 and 98 serve the Medical School and Queen Elizabeth Hospital. The services all run frequently from the city centre.

By Car

Approaching from the north west or south east along the M6: Leave at Junction 6 (signposted Birmingham Central) to join the A38 (M). At the end of the motorway, keep to the right, go over a flyover, then through some underpasses to join the A38 Bristol Road.

Approaching from the M42 north: Leave at Junction 8 to join the M6 northbound and follow the instructions above.

Approaching from the south west: Leave the M5 at Junction 4 signposted Birmingham SW to join the A38.

Approaching from the M40: It is easier to turn south on the M42 and leave at Junction 1, heading north on the A38 Bristol Road.

Car Parking

If you're arriving before 18:00, Monday to Friday, you will need to park in the University's North East Car Park, on Pritchatts Road, B15 2SA. This is a pay and display car park.

After 18:00 and at weekends, car parking is available on the University of Birmingham campus and is free of charge. There are plenty of spaces for all visitors, accessible via the University's East Gate (on Edgbaston Park Road).
